Kitchen Six Dinner Outing, Thursday, September 6, 5:00 PM. Neighbors in the Oak Grove area decided to open a restaurant in the shopping mall where Oak Grove Market is. The founding partners met Chef Jason Jimenez of Homespun and appreciated his passion for community, hospitality, and “make-it-from-scratch” mentality. Jason’s experience in fine dining (Charleston's Peninsula Grill; Atlanta’s iconic Canoe, Local Three, and Muss and Turner’s) and his private chef business have allowed him to hone his craft and prepare food that is authentic without being pretentious and is driven by local ingredients. The Kitchen Six concept- to have an exceptional menu selection that is focused with highly seasonal ingredients- resonated with Jason and allows him to prepare quality and thoughtful dishes for guests. With an intimate 60-seat dining room and bar, Kitchen Six strives to create a unique experience for Oak Grove locals and the surrounding Atlanta area. Cost: $3 for bus and money for dinner. Deadline: September 3. Need 10 or more to sign up and show up.
